

Well, I went to Lansing Saturday and watched Minnesota's football eleven get whipped by Michigan State. Actually got to feeling a little bit sorry for Minnesota towards the end, and I wasn't the only one. I never seen such a display of sympathy towards the enemy since 1948 when State beat Hawaii by something like 70 to nothing. At that time the entire stadium, including the State cheerleaders and band were rooting for the little Hawaiian team.

And now if the U. of M. gets a justly-deserved thrashing from Ohio State next weekend, then old Jack Pine will be happy. Yep, the old like to see that, and my getting a buck this fall.

I drive too fast and I know it. But never have I been passed so often and so speedily as last Saturday night. Well, it's not when a man puts on his hunting clothes and heads North he drives like a madman? The same guy, going about in his usual driving seldom loses all his reason. Put a man in red thought, by golly, he seems to think he's a fire engine.

There's a cartoon on the back cover of the current "Michigan Conservation" that depicts, among other things, the normally sane hunter at break neck speed to his rendezvous with the buck deer. It's a darned clever cartoon, but then the whole magazine is good. Ably written, beautifully illustrated, extremely informative. This colorful magazine is issued bimonthly for the total sum of 50 cents a year. It's without a doubt the best magazine buy around. The current issue is devoted almost exclusively to deer. It has an excellent article on dressing out, skinning and butchering venison, others on deer feeding and habits and another on deer hunting Christmas trees. But the real shocker is written by M. J. Gresso, entitled "Fair Warning: A Hunter's Warning." It takes three shots at "something moving." "Something" is a 15 year old boy. What happens then will long remain in your memory. Oh, these FOOLS that fire at anything.

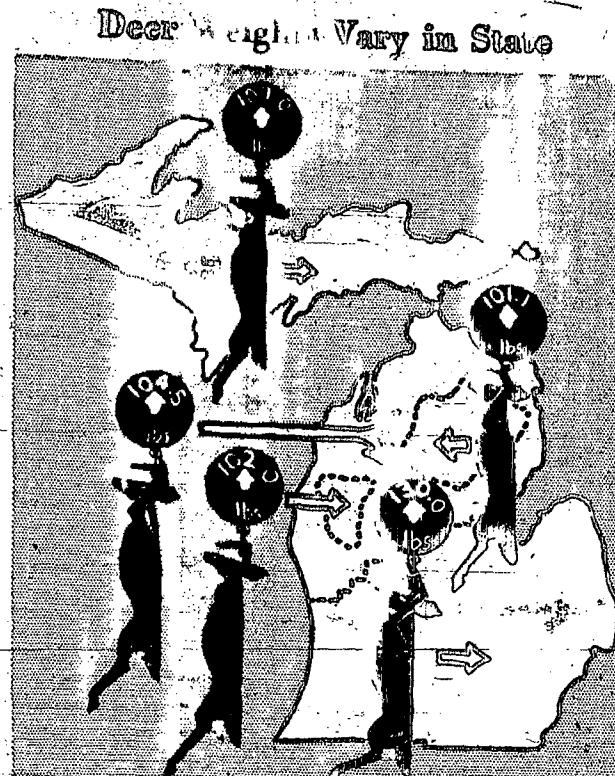

A fellow tells about a man from Grand Rapids who has a most unique way of attracting the deer to slaughter. Seems that he ventures forth armed with a rifle and a portable radio. The radio he hangs in a tree, turned on full blast. The hunter then removes himself a short distance and waits. He claims the deer are attracted by the strange noise and come to investigate. He says he hasn't missed getting his buck since he started hunting with the radio. That may be fine for him, but if I heard a radio going full blast in the woods, there just might be one dead radio... horns or no.

And then there is another man who kills a big fire and hides himself. He says the deer are attracted to the fire, and when they get in range he picks off a buck and that's that. That's what the man says.

Well, we passed another milestone in the Jack Pine household a few days ago. My little home with his first report card from school. We know the boy is really a genius, but the teacher just didn't seem to see things that way. He graded him something like "below average." I don't care, and believe me, there is nothing flatter than a parent's pride when Junior brings home that first report. Absolutely nothing! I guess he thought he should have all A's; the one A he did get helps to assemble our system, though. We should have listened to the boy when he kept insisting over the past few weeks that there were lots of kids "smarter than me." We just thought he was being modest... but then, who ever heard of a modest six year old boy?

Grayling, our suburb to the north, is moving and gaining publicity. That Grayling is getting ahead of them, what with new buildings, a proposed new hospital, and the likes. They haven't got much up there, but they sure do have a lot of things going on. That all night long hunter's festival got a great amount of publicity and attracted a lot of hunters and their money. But who wants to keep a business open on a night? Doug Nash, the manager of the Chamber of Commerce in Grayling has to pounce on every opportunity. A few years ago he photographed the start of the annual canoe race right here in Grayling. The next day the downstate papers carried the pictures with captions (supplied by Doug Nash) describing the start of the race. The same guy who has been quoted as saying that if Grayling had all the attractions of Grayling and Crawford County there would be no stopping him. Yea verily!

To Joe Cincinella. If you want to bowl a good game, you either got to have a high fever, no sleep for three days, a bad back, or a hopeless attitude. NEVER rest up for a game... it's fatal over the line. You won't have to join the Women's League; I understand your team mates are willing to give you another try.

Conservation Department information gathered the last three hunting seasons shows that northern Michigan yearling buck deer average slightly over 100 pounds each while yearling bucks in the southern part average 130 pounds. A yearling is actually 1 1/2 years old, born the spring of one year and killed in its second autumn. The difference in weights is caused by poorer food conditions and tougher winters in the north.

Five Vikings On Loop Squad

Five members of the Grayling Viking football squad were honored last Thursday by being named to the Northern C Conference's all star squad. Although none were named to the first team, three captured second team spots and two were given honorable mention.

The first team was made up of three players from Charlevoix and Boyne City with East Jordan and Pellston getting two positions and Manvelona having one man named Grayling was represented at the conference meeting held in the Hotel Dilworth in Boyne City last Thursday night by coaches Larry Baumann and Bruce Smith, athletic director Joseph Stripe and Elmer Fenton.

The meeting voted to hold the Conference track meet next spring on the new Grayling track under the lights. The date will be set at the spring conference meeting.

Senior Play Fri. Nite

The Seniors would like to remind you of the play on November 18, 1955 at 8 P. M. in the High School Auditorium. The admission is 50¢ students and 50¢ adults. The play is under the direction of Mr. Robert Bovee. Those in charge of the stage are: Kay Ellen Pettengill, properties manager; Marlene Vinkov and Joyce Cincinella, prompters; Barbara Fenton and Mary Richardson, sound effects; Bob Carlson, stage and scenery. Mrs. Roy Milnes will direct the makeup department.

Judy Larson will play the piano between the acts of the play. The synopsis of the first act follows:

"Are Parents People?" That's a question young people often try to answer, and one that parents are usually too busy to ponder. Fred Miller and his wife, Martha, are certainly too busy. Fred, president-elect of the local Kiwanis Club, is getting ready to go to his installation meeting.

Warm-hearted Martha is co-chairman for the Book Review section of the Women's Club. They are delayed as Miss Muller, psychology teacher at the High School, drops in to ask permission to have their seventeen-year-old son, George, appear on the school radio program. She leaves them with the disconcerting information that George has the I. Q. of a genius.

Fred and Martha question their eighteen-year-old daughter, Doris, about George's I. Q. She passes it off as a joke until she becomes a little jealous when she hears them not to tell Biff Sweetzer, her boy friend.

George soon comes home and is very unlike a genius. Of course, he says he is a genius but he doesn't feel any different from any one else. He tells them about the radio discussion and suggests also that they "come back home" and do things as a family.

Conscience stricken, Fred and Martha vow that the next night they will stay at home.

If you are interested in the rest of the play we hope to see you on the play on Friday evening, at 8 o'clock.

Mary Jane Wakeley, Reporter.

Kiwanis Club Notes

The weekly meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Grayling was held Monday evening at the Kiwanis Dining Room. President Les Hunter presided over a short business meeting. There was no program at this week's meeting as most members needed to get back to their regular jobs due to the heavy influx of deer hunters.

Plans for the Football Banquet which will be held at the new gym at Grayling High School were discussed. The banquet is being staged by the club in honor of the Viking football team. Dr. J. F. Cook and Supt. of Schools Frank L. Bond are in charge of arrangements.

Due to more space, the banquet tickets will be open to the public and tickets will be available for the December 8th event from any club members.

The football squad, their fathers and mothers as well as the Kiwanis Club members would like to see a crowd near 200. The speaker will be Don Mason, freshman football coach at Michigan State University and former All American guard under Coach Clarence "Biggie" Munan at State. He will also show movies of the 1955 game between State and Wisconsin.

Hanson received his Bachelor of Science degree in Forestry from the University of Michigan and served in the U. S. Navy during World War II as a line officer aboard a Navy transport ship.

His family includes his wife, Mary Anna, and year old twins Paula Jane and Jeffrey John. He is membership secretary of the Lower Michigan Chapter of the Society of American Foresters.

Harry Souders was among the lucky ones to get his deer the first day of the season. He shot a 6 point at 9:30 in the morning.

Claude L. Wilkes of Garden City and John Urbane, Jr., of Farmington are here to spend a week in deer season at the Wilkes cottage. Mrs. S. Ballard has left Alpena to visit her sister, Mrs. Elmer Hoffmeyer of St. Clair Shores for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Flower, accompanied by Mrs. Signe Randall, were in Rosecon on business Monday afternoon.

Miss Bethlyn Campbell was at home November 4th till the afternoon of the 6th from Spring Arbor Junior College visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vivan Campbell and grandmother Mrs. Bertha Davis. She was a member of a girls' trio which sang at Wolveterne Free Methodist Church Saturday evening November 5th and on the Sunday morning following in Grayling Free Methodist Church. The trio, called the Jubilaers, travel some in the interest of Spring Arbor College, located near Jackson. A speaker, Mrs. Freeman, brought the girls and also spoke in the interest of the school.

R. H. Marker of Greenville, Ohio, had his buck, a spikehorn, 35 minutes after the opening of the season. He and Mrs. Marker are staying at the Ernest Low cabins.

Miss Jo Hunter, daughter of the Bob Hunters of Beaver Creek will provide special entertainment during the intermission of the Theatre's Club "Harvest Hop" to be held at Mercy College in Detroit, Friday night. Miss Hunter is a student at Mercy College.

It's That Time Again

One of these hunters bagged this big buck last fall. He and his partner, dragging it out on deep upper peninsula snow, remind Michigan sportsmen that deer season, November 15-30, inclusive, is close on the calendar. An estimated 425,000 hunters will bag about 60,000 bucks this fall in the state's wilderness areas.

Frederic Eagles Open Cage Season Friday

The Frederic High basketball squad, the Eagles will open their 1955-56 basketball season by traveling to Merritt this Friday night.

Under the tutelage of their new coach, Dick Ebert, former Rosecon Buck player, the Eagles have been drilling since the first of October. Four veterans from last year's squad are back. They are: Alfie Hummel, Wayne Winston, Bob Pratt and Larry Barnham. Rounding out the varsity squad are Bruce Welch, John Mertes, Charles Lodge, Gary Pippio, Jim Knight, Maurice Alma and Lewis Johnston.

The reserve game will pit the Frederic girls team against the Merritt girls and will get underway at 7:30 p. m.

Last year, the Eagles and Merritt split wins in a home and home series.

Former Local People's Son Takes Position

John Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hansen of Shepherd, and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Marguerite Hansen, has accepted a position as Chief Forester with the Watervliet Paper Company.

Hansen has been forest management and utilization specialist with the Forestry Division of the Michigan Department of Conservation since 1948 and his resignation is effective December 2, according to Director Gerald E. Eddy.

He will be stationed at Clare in charge of a wood concentration yard where rough aspen pulpwood will be received, peeled and shipped to the mill at Watervliet. The job will also call for working with private woodland owners regarding the management of their land as a means of insuring a long-term wood supply within an eight to ten county area tributary to the Clare location.

Hansen received his Bachelor of Science degree in Forestry from the University of Michigan and served in the U. S. Navy during World War II as a line officer aboard a Navy transport ship.

His family includes his wife, Mary Anna, and year old twins Paula Jane and Jeffrey John. He is membership secretary of the Lower Michigan Chapter of the Society of American Foresters.

The arrest took place near the O'Dell crossing of the New York Central railroad tracks north of Freeland. Kaznowski's car became stuck on the tracks and he was driving back and forth along the railroad right of way. He will appear before Justice Clough this week.

CARS ARE MU
by ART GOODRICH

The most overtaxed people in the country, without a doubt, are car owners who drink. They shouldn't be doing both at the same time, of course, but when you're either driving or drinking you're paying a healthy wallop in taxes.

Of every dollar spent for a new car, an average of 32 cents is paid in federal, state and local taxes. On top of that are the gas taxes. In this country 43 million drivers are contributing close to 5 billion dollars a year in tax revenues.

The users of the highways should, of course, pay for those highways. But nearly half of the taxes collected from car drivers are used for government expenses that have nothing to do with automobiles. So the car owners are being soaked twice, once as an ordinary citizen paying his regular taxes and a second time as a car owner.

Every year the motorist pays for a coast to coast highway he never gets. By now, say the experts, there could be 40 such roads if car and gas taxes were used to improve driving conditions.

Most of these taxes are based on the theory that a car is a luxury, or that by taxing the car owner you are soaking the rich. There's a positive answer to that right at our used car lot. It's pretty obvious just from looking over our tested used cars that you can buy the feel of luxury without paying luxury money. Here we have rows and rows of cars that have been checked and examined to make sure you'll get from them what you want from any car: They'll get you there surely economically in style and in comfort. Take one out for a spin yourself.

We want to offer our congratulations to Gladys Corwin who was the winner of our grand door prize at our recent auto show, a hi-fi record player. Congratulations are also in order to the following for winning a lubrication job: Bud Haddock, Bob Dean, J. P. Madson, Art Paulson, Vera Perry, Mildred Fox, Condie Duffy, Linda Felling, Wesley Sammons, Mrs. Dick Lovely, Nels Kron of Saginaw, and Howard Hatfield; the following for winning 35 of gasoline each: Larry Balch, Wes Hayes, Wanda Milner, Larry Balch, Jr., Thomas Stancil, Bortha Potomson, Margaret Douglas, Helen Hatfield, Larry Balch (again), how lucky can you get, Louise Hatfield, James Work of Atlanta, and Leona Wynn; the following for winning spray glass jobs: C. E. Dodds, Dale Sergeant of Rosecommon and Bud Gould.

Make Fast And Early Start On Michigan Week Plans For 1956

Michigan is starting fast and early to count its blessings for 1956.

The third annual Michigan Week has been scheduled for May 20-26 and committees already are at work.

It is the annual toast to business, industry, education, the resort areas, agriculture and all the things that make the state something extra special to its citizens.

The advertising value of Michigan week has been demonstrated. Business is booming and more people are coming to the state to spend their money and vacation time.

Russell Swaney, head of Detroit's Federal Reserve Bank is Wayne County chairman for the 1956 Michigan Week. He will appoint chairmen for each of Michigan's other counties.

With details yet to be worked out, the week will again begin with Spiritual Foundations Day May 20 and end with New Frontiers Day on May 26.

Mayors will again exchange cities in a rewarding feature of Michigan week.

"The sponsors believe next year's Michigan Week will see the greatest outpouring of pride and enthusiasm that the people of a state have ever shown for the place they live and work," said Walker L. Calkins, president of Detroit Edison Co., and president of Greater Michigan, Inc., sponsor of the celebration.

Michigan Week, after two years, is standing the third annual Michigan Week in May, late enough for good weather for outdoor celebrations, and early enough to be a major event of the school year.

Again headquarters of Michigan Week will be the office of the Department of Economic Development in Lansing.

There will be an official proclamation of the week by Gov. Williams and all citizens will be asked to observe it.

Northern Road Clerks To Meet Here

The Association of County Road Commission Clerks representing the 32 counties of the northern half of the lower peninsula will hold its annual meeting at the Ausable River Inn on September 29th at which thirty clerks were present.

Guest speaker at that meeting was Ray Kutchins of the State Highway Department.

Clerk Russell said today that snow removal contracts for private drives and roads were being readied and placed in the mail. He added that most every person who had a contract with the County Road Commission during the past winter should receive their contract in the very near future.

State Police Recruiter To Explain Pay Hike

New higher pay scales will be explained in detail by the Michigan State Police recruiting team which will visit Grayling on Saturday, November 26th, to answer questions and assist in filling out application forms of young men interested in becoming troopers.

A drive is now being conducted to obtain 200 more troopers authorized at the special session of the Legislature to fight the highway accident toll.

Applications close November 30. Those sent by mail to the State Civil Service Commission in Lansing and postmarked by midnight of that date will be accepted.

Although men interested may call at a State Police post at any time or talk to any State Police officer, the recruiting team visit has been arranged for their convenience. The team will be at the Court House from 9:00 A. M. to 5:00 P. M. Its members will be Sgt. Crimmon and Tpr. Alfred Strlecky of the Houghton Lake Post.

Definition of Education

What is education?

That question is susceptible to many answers. An interesting one is given by U. S. Commissioner of Education Brownell in an article appearing in Today's Health, a publication of the American Medical Association. To him, education is "an investment in the guidance and growth—mental, physical and spiritual—of today's children, youth and adults." He adds, "It is an investment protected always by community tradition, local pride and responsibility for the school."

Commissioner Brownell's article bears the title "Challenges to Our Schools." As everyone who reads the papers and magazines knows, these challenges are very real and in many instances severe today. Their most obvious manifestation is found in overcrowding of the schools and an insufficiency of teachers and classrooms. In addition, there are less publicized problems—including that of health, with which the Brownell article is largely concerned.

Our population growth has been enormous—the census rolls have swelled by 5,000,000 in less than two years. The Commissioner quotes a government official as stating that "the stork has displaced the eagle as the most representative American bird." The 1955-56 academic year will see a record school enrollment. There will be some 36,718,000 youngsters in the public and nonpublic elementary schools, and an additional 2,839,000 students in colleges and universities.

And this, the Commissioner points out, is only the beginning. When the 1959-60 school year rolls around, it is estimated that the public elementary and secondary schools alone will have an enrollment of 37,363,000, and students in nonpublic schools will up the figure to 42,818,000.

Statistics, Commissioner Brownell observes, "challenge leaders in health as well as those in education." Some 28,000,000 Americans are estimated to have some known chronic disease, physical impairment or mental disorder. It is predicted that one in 12 of U. S. children will spend some time in a mental institution. Accidents claim the lives and health of the young as well as their elders, which has led to many schools adopting motor vehicle instruction as part of the curricula. Juvenile delinquency is a related problem which grows steadily more critical—Dr. Brownell believes that "educators and health specialists can probably do much in a preventative way." There are nearly 5,000,000 children who need specialized educational attention because of physical, emotional, mental and other abnormalities. And we still have a long way to go in eradicating illiteracy. To quote him again, "We have a nation-wide problem of educating the physically and mentally handicapped child as well as the especially gifted child. We still have much to do to improve school health programs."

The Commissioner, clearly, is optimistic as to future achievement. Great progress has been made in school health programs, and the remaining problems are solvable. These problems are, he says, of concern to federal and state governments—"but primary responsibility for their solution rests with local communities and citizens."

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

November 17, 1932

Through the benevolence and generosity of Mr. Walter P. Murphy, philanthropist of Chicago, Grayling Mercy Hospital is to receive a wonderful gift—a new modern elevator. About two years ago Sister Mary Leo spoke of the much needed elevator to Mrs. Herbert Wolff who since the establishment of the hospital has always been interested in it and the Sisters of Mercy, assured Sister Mary Leo that she was going to help them to get an elevator.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Wolff, Mr. Walter P. Murphy who has done so much for charities, was interested in our need and two years ago gave the hospital the money needed to build an elevator shaft. Recently the elevator situation was again brought to Mr. Murphy's attention and through his great generosity and his personal admiration for Grayling Mercy Hospital is assured of a most modern elevator. The good news of this gift was received with so much joy that all have been held speechless. We feel that we cannot express in words our keen appreciation of this gift and can only ask God's blessing on the donor and those associated with him in the completion of the Walter P. Murphy Memorial Elevator for Grayling Mercy Hospital.

The second regular meeting of the Woman's Club was held at the home of Mrs. Emil Giesling Monday night. Following the business meeting, the Club paid tribute to deceased member, Mrs. J. The Rev. Mrs. Salmon is back with us at the South Side church and special meetings were begun there last evening, to continue every night this week. Also we are to be reinforced by the coming of our District Elder, Rev. A. D. Warren of Alpena who will preach for us nightly and over the Sabbath. Accept this as your invitation by the pastor to come and be partaker of the benefits.

Charles Webb and Dr. S. A. Stealy were in Lansing Tuesday and Wednesday of last week attending a Public Health convention.

Miss Eileen Doby and Miss Mary Schumann had the unpleasant experience of skidding on the icy road last Friday while en route to Lansing, and their car going into the ditch and upset. Mary has a double fracture of the scapula from the accident but otherwise there were no injuries. This didn't deter them from proceeding with the journey and both returned home Sunday.

Other hunting visitors at the Callahan home are William Miller of Bay City and Mrs. Russell of Saginaw.

Last Thursday evening three autoloofs of Crawford County Grangers drove to Gaylord and installed officers of the Lakeview Grange of that place. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Owen acted as installing officers with Mrs. Elizabeth Serven and Mrs. Matilda Robarge as assistants, and Mrs. Florence Wakeley presiding at the organ. The Crawford County Grangers were highly applauded for the fine manner in which they carried out the installation ceremonies. After the installation the Lakeview Grangers served a delicious pot luck lunch, after which dancing was enjoyed for an hour.

Crawford County Grange officers are to be installed by Mr. and Mrs. G. F. DeLaMater of Gaylord on the evening of December 3rd, when the meeting will be open to any who wish to come.

EVERYTHING YOU DO!

FROM THE MOMENT you awaken until you go to bed, almost everything you do is closely dependent upon the operation of trucks. In fact, even while you're asleep, trucks are working for you. (Beds arrive by trucks, too, of course.)

Without trucks, your favorite food market would have empty shelves. Without trucks, you wouldn't find gas stations located conveniently almost everywhere you turn. Without trucks, the building of new homes, factories and stores would slow to a walk and businesses of all kinds everywhere would suffer.

Sooner or later, everything you eat, wear, or use depends on trucks for transportation. Eventually, everything has to get to you — the consumer. So, when you consider that trucks haul three times the tonnage handled by all the other forms of transportation combined, you realize how very important they are to you!

Seen Monk's "Better Half"?

Monk McCarthy's latest creation has the town talking again. You can see it parked in front of Monk's auto repair shop on Maple.

Remember last year Monk cut two cars in half, and put their front ends together? You couldn't tell if the thing was coming or going. Sure attracted attention.

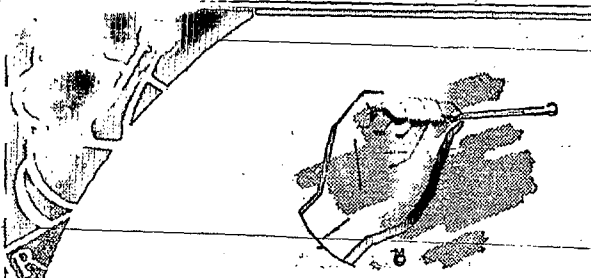

Now Monk's taken Tog Morgan's old sedan and completely restored one half of it. One side is as good as new, the other looks like—well, Tog's old car. "Sort of a before-and-after demonstration," Monk told me, "shows folks the kind of work I do."

From where I sit, some of Monk's ideas may look a little wild sometimes... but I wouldn't want to tell him how to run his business any more than I'd like him to tell me what he'd like to do. He always keeps a hot pot of tea in his garage—I'd rather have a cold glass of beer—but respect for each other's opinion is "auto"-matic with us both.
